while houses with foreign connections sold more around the local ring than they bought, and the market soon weakened under a renewal of more or less general pressure. There was another rally during the middle of the day, which may have been promoted by the forecast for showers in the eastern belt, increased exports and talk of a better tone in the Fall River goods market. Advances of 30 to 40 points from the low level met increased offerings, however, and the market eased off again, breaking into new low ground during the afternoon. Reports that cotton mills at Utica had cut prices on sheetings and yarns en the process of the general tendency toward a reduction in commodity prices, and the idea appeared to be that the necessity for cutting prices to move goods would be likely to weaken the resistance of Southern spot holders. The spot cotton was pressing on some of the markets was also surgested by reports received also suggested by reports received during the day, and Southern spot quotations efficially received showed a sharp decline, ranging from 50 to 400 points lower. The Houston market, for instance, was 125 points lower at 25.75 for middling and the middling price at Porth Worth broke through the 25 cent level. The decline of 4 cents a und was in the previously nominal totation at St. Louis.

The range of prices follows: market conditions.

Sugar Futures—The sugar futures market opened unchanged to a decline of 5 points, then worked off, closing at net losses of 15 to 25 points. Wall Street sold and there were also indications that brokers with 'uban connections were also on the selling side, due to the weakness in actual sugar. Trading from day to day has been limited and without outside interests in the market.
